WILDERNESS FLYER

The Wilderness Flyer is found within Snowstorm Valley in the park, surrounded by dense forest, towering mountains and mysterious caves, there is a surprise around every corner.

Daring to ride the Wilderness Flyer means it's time to hop on the back of a Red-Tailed Hawk as you swoop beneath the canopy of the trees and meet the exciting Canadian wildlife, pine martens in the forests, and the beavers by the frozen waterfalls. The journey takes you onwards to an isolated and suspicious-looking log cabin, where inside, a terrifying wendigo is lurking and more than ready to chase you! As a drop track takes you into one of his abandoned mineshafts, it is time for you to race to the exit!

But if the fearless thrills aren't for you, why not have a ride on the gentle ski lift above the trees? Or, check out the many shops and cafés in the area, as well as the buffet restaurant, Twin Pines, serving hot and cold food and drink to all adventurous visitors!
